Re additional Rathreb to the elephant in the Sri Srikanteswaraswami temple at Nanjangud

From

The Dy Commr., Mysore District.

Letter No. 338 Dated 21st Feb. 1907.

Slip B

The Jaradik of the Sri Srikanteswara Swami temple at Nanjangud was revised by Rao Bahadur A. Sreenivasaphanlu in June 1899 when a sum of Rs 10 per mensem was allotted for the Rathreb (fodder) of the elephant attached to the temple.

The local Officers represent that the elephant does a lot of useful work in the temple in addition to bringing the daily Abhrodaka for Puja and pushing the Car on each Pournami day from behind. Mer state that the present allotment of Rs 10 per mensem towards its fodder is utterly insufficient and that if the animal is not given rice, ghee & jaggery it will not be as useful as it is now.

As the temple has no savings the Dy Comm! solicits sanction to the additional cost of Rs 10 per mensem on account of feeding the elephant, being ordered to be paid from the State ~~Funds~~ Grant.

of the temple being utilized towards the feeding of the elephant it is suggested that the funds required for repairs may be met from the Golaka collections when the annual savings of Rs 123-15-0 is depleted upon to the extent of Rs 120-0-0 for feeding the elephant, there will be Rs 3-15-0 only available.

(Sd) Muzrai Secretary's remarks:—

There is no doubt that the elephant in the Nanjangud temple requires more nourishment than is being given at present. Mr Sreenivasappa has fixed the cost of its maintenance at Rs 10/- per mensem but the price of paddy having greatly risen the quantity obtained is found insufficient. The proposal to raise the amount from 10 to 20 is perhaps pitched too high. The amount may I think be fixed at Rs 15, the excess of Rs 5 per mensem being met from the Savings of Rs 123-15-0 referred to by the Dy Comm.
